Milk Is Best as Flesh Builder.

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D. United States Separar from New York. Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

A lady in Pennsylvania writes for an article about milk as a flesh builder. She wants to know what form will give the best and most satisfactory results. Should it be as fresh milk," she says, "or buttermilk made from the churning of butter, or the manametered article which is being extensively sold?" There is no question about the value of the socalled "cultured" milks. The Hulgarian bacillus. the bacillus acidophilus, and other implantations in malk or buttermilk are useful to overcoming what the doctors call "intestinal toxemia." They help to ciennse and purify the bowel and on this account have a real place in curative medicine. I alsume, however, that my correspondent desires | parch. to be informed regarding the place of milk as a Assuming the report of the brief to be a food, not as a remedy for a diseased condition.

Pure milk from healthy cows is the most perfect feed in the world. There are reason why cou's milk must be modified somewhat for Infant use to make it approach. mother's milk in its chemical and physical proveerties. But for adults it is the ideal food. As a fleshebillder, the more butter fat or cream it contains the more effective it will be. For this reason the Jersey or Guermey milk will be better than Holstein. The butter fat content of the Holstein is low, while it is high in the milk of the other breeds. When the milk is produced and distributed under governmental regulation, the percentage of danter fot is guaranteed and no special effort is required to get milk of required richness.

Germs are intelligent in their conclusions. They have found out what substances are nost nourishing. They know where they can best eat if they would thrive. Lorg ago they found out that made is the food to make them was fat and strong. The fondness of germs for milk is why this fluid, which is the most precess of all foods, may become Termful to hum a beings. On this account, you gast make certain your malk supply comes from a

About "High-Priced" Stores —

Furniture stores, for one reason or another, get reputations for being "highpriced" or in between.

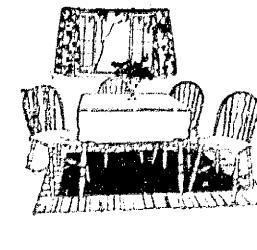

There is only one way to find out if a store is "high-priced" or not, and that is to spend a little time and shop around.

Here at Schaffner's we are so sure of our ground on this that we invite you to visit all other stores first, and then come here to make your comparisons. The only thing we ask of you is that you also compare qualityand that you take into consideration the general reputation of each store visited.

Schaffner's could never have built up the business it now enjoys unless prices were right, and unless quality was right, and unless Service was right.

So far as lone-time credit is concerned, we allow the same as any other store - only that credit is a Service with us - not a penalty.

It is doubtful if the Athletic head of the Indiana college of Know Rocker are giving serious consideration to joining any "conference," large or small. Likely the wish is father of the thought. No doubt the "Hig Ten" would like to have something to say about who and where Notre Dame will play. But to long as the teams from the Trish school are playing the game as they have played it the past few years, they would be unwise, to say the least, to hamper

When you smoke Lucky Strikes for the first time, you instantly note their difference from other cigarettes.

That's because-in addition to the world's finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged, perfectly blended - "IT'S TOASTED."

Even without toasting, Lucky Strike tobaccos would make them the best

Toasting is a costly added process, not a mere slogan. Lucky Strike smokers enjoy:

1. Finer Flavor. Toasting for 45 minutes develops the hidden flavors of the world's finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos.

2. Smoothness. Toasting for 45 minutes removes all "bite" and harshness, hence never any throat irritation. 3. Freshness. Then the tobacco is suddenly chilled. This seals the flavor in and insures constant freshness. Thus the toasting process is an addition. It adds a unique and distinct improvement to a cigarette that hapalready been made from the finest Turk-ish and domestic tobaccos. It is the reason millions prefer Lucky Strikes.
